

INSIDER INFO:

Keep an eye out for the VIP room that celebs and elite clients are ushered into to chill out in private. If you're a college-goer who wants the Champagne experience on a Buck's Fizz budget, there's a 20 per cent student discount available Monday-Wednesday.

SEAN TAAFFE

23 Fair Street
Drogheda
T: 041 9844522

THE SCENE:

As the only salon in Ireland to have taken home the Irish Hairdresser of the Year award three times (including this year), Chameleon's appointment book is filling up faster than you can say "cut and colour". The gorgeous Georgian-style decor gives the place a real girly boudoir feel, too.

THE SERVICES:

It's not just Louth ladies that love this place - hair buffs from around the country travel to Chameleon for everything from touch-up trims to look-transforming styles. If your knackered hair is in need of some nourishment, ask for the K-APK, a 4-step treatment by Joico.

NAME DROPPING:

David Murray is the man to ask for, but bookings with him are like gold dust. Current Irish Hairdresser of the Year Sara Geaney is also in hot demand but you need to book early (the wait will be worth it!).

Insider info:

If you fancy getting your hair done by a future hair hero, call the salon and ask about their weekly trainee classes (including colour, cuts and highlights), all supervised by a fully-qualified pro and all at very reasonable rates.

Sean Taaffe

Courtyard,
Lewis Road, Killarney

T: 1850 822333
www.seantaaffe.com

THE SCENE:

Mood lighting, massage chairs and a barista machine make going to Sean Taaffe's a real treat. But it's not all about the cute extras - the salon has been awarded five star status from the independent Good Salon Guide and has been nominated for a Global Salon Business Award.

THE SERVICES:

With an impressive roster of 18 stylists, colourists, and technicians - they even have a dedicated male stylist in-house - getting the look you want will be easy. You can also avail of a full range of beauty services, from manis and pedis to eyelash tints and facials.

INSIDER INFO:

They're the first salon in Ireland to provide a 24/7 online booking service where you even book an appointment with your fave stylist!

Toni & Guy

Clarendon Street, Dublin 2

T: 01 671 4401
www.toniandguy.ie

THE SCENE:

As cutting edge as they come, this recently refurbished salon features LCD screens within each mirror at each styling station, remote controlled seating and a very funky floor-to-ceiling tropical fish aquarium in the waiting area. Their involvement with London Fashion Week has made them the go-to salon for trend-seeking gals.

THE SERVICES:

As well as all the usual premier league T&G services, downstairs at the Clarendon Street salon is the Metro Spa where you can get speedy one-hour teeth whitenings, Dermalogica facials, and even glycolic peels.

INSIDER INFO:

Free consultations are available at both the spa and the salon so call in before your appointment to discuss what look you're after and what would suit your lifestyle.

TONI & GUY

THE U MAG DIRECTORY