

Charity fashion event is as good as gold

By LORRAINE WALSH

KERRY'S most stylish ladies dressed to impress in Val's Bar and Bistro, Tralee on Wednesday night for the charity 'Black and Gold' event held raise funds for Kerry based Charity Build4Life.

Guests were wined and dined before they were given a top hair and beauty masterclass.

MC on the night was Radio Kerry's Deirdre Walsh, who started the night by reminding people of the work carried out by Build4Life, whose aim is to provide life-saving facilities for people living with Cystic Fibrosis at Cork University Hospital.

The main course consisted of a fun and informative Hair and Beauty show which was complemented by the latest fashion Christmas collections from Debenhams and evening wear by award-winning Kerry-based designer Caroline Atelier.

Siobhan O'Mahony, Clarins Senior Make up Artist, provided a make-up master class, showing guests how to create the perfect make up look and Sean Taaffe Hair and Beauty gave demonstrations on this season's key hair trends.

The evening finished with the awarding of the 'Most Stylish Girl' who was chosen by Caroline Matthews of Caroline Atelier on behalf of RSVP Magazine.

The winner was Tara Murphy of Clogherbrien, Tralee, who came dressed in gold, keeping with the Black and Gold theme for the night.

Tara won a dream prize of a shopping trip to Cork, including a one night break at the five star Kingsley Hotel in Cork City for two, plus shopping vouchers.

Elaine Doyle, Killarney and Carol Browne, Castlesland attending the 'Black And Gold' Charity event in Val's Bar and Restaurant, Tralee, last Wednesday. Photo: Dornick Walsh

Sandara O'Sullivan, Tara Murphy and Caroline Matthews attending the 'Black And Gold' Charity event in Val's Bar and Restaurant, Tralee, last Wednesday. Photo: Dornick Walsh

Siobhan O'Mahony, Radio Kerry's Deirdre Walsh (seated), Lesley Dennehy and Sarah Bermingham from Clarins at Debenhams Tralee attending the 'Black And Gold' Charity event in Val's Bar and Restaurant, Tralee, last Wednesday. Photo: Dornick Walsh