

The team from Sean Taaffe Hair & Beauty celebrate winning Munster Salon of the Year award in Dublin on Monday.

Salon's crowning glory

A KERRY hair care business has been crowned Munster Salon of the Year.

Sean Taaffe Hair & Beauty won the accolade at the annual Schwarzkopf Professional Irish Hairdressing Business Awards which took place in Dublin's Shelbourne Hotel on Monday.

With over 2,500 salons in Ireland, hairdressing has firmly established itself as big business, and the Schwarzkopf Irish Hairdressing Business awards are considered the Oscars of the industry in Ireland.

The awards were created to identify and acknowledge business excellence and professionalism in successful hair salons within the Irish hairdressing industry.

Salon director, Sean Taaffe, remarked: "It is a great honour for us to win. It is a credit to the dedicated team in our salon and the hard work they put in daily."

Mr Taaffe added: "We are proud of what we have achieved to date and this is the icing on the cake."

His team members are no strangers to awards and the salon has already been awarded five-star status from the independent Good Salon Guide and nominated for a Global Salon Business Award.
